

Koinonia Homes, Inc. - Board of Directors

Fred A. Watkins is Chairman of the Koinonia Homes, Inc. Board of Directors. Mr. Watkins holds an A.B. from Colby College, a M.B.A. from Cornell University, and a J.D. from Case Western Reserve Law School. Mr. Watkins' membership in civic organizations, clubs, and business affiliations include the Ohio Bar, Vice President of S.A.R. (Sons of the America Revolution Western Reserve Chapter), Chairman of the Essay Contest & Good Citizenship, and the Rotary Club of downtown Cleveland. Mr. Watkins is Executive Vice President of National Telephone Supply Company.

Mr. Watkins' background includes volunteer work as President, and Treasurer for the Lutheran Home in Westlake, Ohio, President of the Lutheran Elderhood Foundation, and until his appointment on the Koinonia Homes, Inc. Board, Vice President of the CMR (Center for Mental Retardation).

Mr. Watkins enjoys boating and likes to spend time with his wife Wilma, a retired registered nurse. He also serves as Organist and Choir Director in his church, as well as President and Deacon of Congregation.

Board Positions Served:

Vice Chairman

Committee Memberships Served:

Co-Chair, Fundraising Committee

Executive Committee

Audit Committee

Chair, Strategic Planning Committee